Religious Non-Discrimination and Freedom of Belief

Policy owner	Chief People Officer	Effective date	To be set on approval
Version	0.1 (draft for review)	Next review	12 months after approval

1. Purpose

Protects every employee's right to hold, practise or not hold a religion or belief, free from discrimination, pressure or harassment. (This is how the requested "anti religion policy" has been interpreted: a policy against religious discrimination, as published by large US multinationals and required by US Title VII and local law.)

2. Scope

All employees, interns, contractors and temporary staff of Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc. and its subsidiaries in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico and New Zealand, and remote staff in any other country (including those engaged through an Employer of Record), whether on-site, hybrid or fully remote.

3. Policy

3.1 Equal treatment. No one is hired, paid, promoted, assigned or dismissed because of their religion, belief or lack of belief.

3.2 No pressure or proselytising at work. Employees may discuss their faith respectfully but must not pressure colleagues to adopt, change or abandon a belief. Managers must never use their position to promote a religion.

3.3 Harassment. Mocking, slurs, stereotyping or offensive content about any religion or belief is harassment and is handled under the Anti-Harassment Policy.

3.4 Prayer and reflection. Larger offices provide a quiet room for prayer or reflection. Short prayer breaks are agreed with the manager and made up within the working day where needed.

3.5 Religious holidays. In addition to public holidays, each employee receives 2 floating holidays a year to use for religious or cultural observances of their choice. Annual leave may also be used.

3.6 Dress and appearance. Religious dress, head coverings and symbols are welcome unless a specific, documented health and safety risk requires an alternative, which will be discussed with the employee.

3.7 Food. Company events and meal vouchers offer halal, kosher, vegetarian and other options on request; alcohol is never required.

3.8 Scheduling. Managers make reasonable efforts to avoid scheduling mandatory events on major religious days and to accommodate fasting periods, for example with flexible hours during Ramadan.

3.9 Neutral workplace. Company communications, events and the community page stay neutral on religion; staff faith networks may run voluntary activities open to all.

4. Responsibilities

- Employees: Respect colleagues' beliefs and request accommodation through HR or the manager.
- Managers: Consider requests fairly and promptly, and consult HR before refusing.
- HR: Track accommodation requests and resolve disputes.

5. Country addenda

Where the law of Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico or New Zealand gives employees greater rights than this policy, the law applies. Each country's HR lead keeps a short addendum listing local differences, published with this policy in the Policy Centre.

6. Related forms and policies

- HR-F01 Leave Application (Religious leave)
- HR-F16 Grievance Form

7. Acknowledgement

Employees confirm they have read this policy in the portal's Policy Centre. Breaches may lead to disciplinary action under POL-18. Questions go to HR or the policy owner.

Draft prepared for Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc., based on common US multinational practice. It is not legal advice and must be reviewed by qualified counsel in each operating country before adoption.
