Remote Work Policy

Policy owner	Chief People Officer	Effective date	To be set on approval
Version	0.1 (draft for review)	Next review	12 months after approval

1. Purpose

Sets the rules, support and protections for staff who work fully remotely, mostly programmers, testers and developers (about 35% of the workforce).

2. Scope

All employees of Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc. and its subsidiaries who are classed as Fully remote in the portal, in any country, including staff engaged through an Employer of Record.

3. Policy

3.1 Eligibility. Roles approved as remote by the department head, usually engineering, QA, data and product roles. Remote status is recorded in the portal and reviewed each year.

3.2 Where you can work. Remote staff may live and work anywhere in the world from an approved home address. In Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico and New Zealand they are employed by the local Mindspace company. In any other country they are engaged through an approved Employer of Record (EOR), which employs them locally and runs payroll, tax and statutory benefits, or as independent contractors where local law allows. Company benefits are matched as closely as local law and the EOR allow.

3.3 Moving country. Tell HR at least 60 days before moving your home to another country. A move needs approval because it changes your employer, contract, pay currency, tax and benefits, and you are responsible for having the right to live and work there.

3.4 Sanctioned locations. The company cannot employ or engage anyone in countries under international sanctions that apply to it, so remote work from those countries is not allowed.

3.5 Working abroad temporarily. Up to 30 days a year from another country with prior approval (HR-F08), to avoid creating tax residency or a permanent establishment.

3.6 Working hours. Core collaboration hours set by each team's time zone, normally 4 hours overlapping with the team. Overtime must be pre-approved.

3.7 Right to disconnect. No expectation to reply outside working hours except agreed on-call rotations, which are paid or compensated.

3.8 Equipment. Company laptop, monitor, headset and accessories, plus a one-off home-office setup budget (default USD 500 equivalent). Equipment remains company property and is returned on exit.

3.9 Remote allowance. A monthly allowance for internet, power backup and utilities (amount set per country), paid through payroll with the correct tax treatment.

3.10 Co-working. Staff without a suitable home space may use an approved co-working space paid by the company.

3.11 Security. Use only company-managed devices, the VPN or zero-trust access, screen lock, and a private space for confidential calls. No client data on personal devices or printed at home.

3.12 Activity and performance. Performance is measured on outcomes (sprint goals, tickets, code reviews, quality). The daily work log and clock-in apply as for office staff. There is no screen recording, keystroke logging or webcam monitoring.

Remote Work Policy

3.13 Health and safety. Complete the home workstation self-check at start and yearly; report work-related injuries as for office staff. Ergonomic equipment can be requested.

3.14 Connection. Remote staff join team rituals by video, have access to remote chat channels and virtual events, and are invited to at least one in-person gathering a year at company cost.

3.15 Fair treatment. Remote staff have equal access to pay reviews, promotion, training and ESOP.

4. Responsibilities

- Managers: Set clear goals, hold regular one-to-ones and include remote staff equally.
- IT: Provide and secure equipment.
- HR and Payroll: Keep location, tax and allowances correct.
- Employees: Keep the approved work location up to date and follow security rules.

5. Country addenda

Where the law of Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico or New Zealand gives employees greater rights than this policy, the law applies. Each country's HR lead keeps a short addendum listing local differences, published with this policy in the Policy Centre.
