Non-Retaliation

Policy owner	Chief Compliance Officer	Effective date	To be set on approval
Version	0.1 (draft for review)	Next review	12 months after approval

1. Purpose
Protects anyone who raises a concern, files a complaint or helps an investigation in good faith.

2. Scope
All employees, interns, contractors and temporary staff of Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc. and its subsidiaries in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico and New Zealand, and remote staff in any other country (including those engaged through an Employer of Record), whether on-site, hybrid or fully remote.

3. Policy
3.1 Protection. No employee will suffer any detriment for reporting a concern, refusing to break the law, requesting an accommodation, or taking part in an investigation.

3.2 What counts as retaliation. Dismissal, demotion, reduced pay or hours, poor reviews without basis, exclusion, threats, intimidation or disclosing a reporter's identity.

3.3 Monitoring. HR monitors the employment history of reporters for 12 months after a case closes.

3.4 Reporting retaliation. Report to HR or Speak Up. Proven retaliation leads to disciplinary action up to dismissal.

4. Responsibilities
- Managers: Never take action against a reporter; consult HR before any change affecting a known reporter.
- HR and Ethics: Monitor and investigate.

5. Country addenda
Where the law of Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico or New Zealand gives employees greater rights than this policy, the law applies. Each country's HR lead keeps a short addendum listing local differences, published with this policy in the Policy Centre.

6. Related forms and policies
- HR-F17 Speak Up Report
- HR-F16 Grievance Form

7. Acknowledgement
Employees confirm they have read this policy in the portal's Policy Centre. Breaches may lead to disciplinary action under POL-18. Questions go to HR or the policy owner.

Draft prepared for Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc., based on common US multinational practice. It is not legal advice and must be reviewed by qualified counsel in each operating country before adoption.
