Disciplinary and Grievance

Policy owner	Chief People Officer	Effective date	To be set on approval
Version	0.1 (draft for review)	Next review	12 months after approval

1. Purpose
Ensures problems at work are handled fairly, consistently and lawfully.

2. Scope
All employees, interns, contractors and temporary staff of Mindspace Artificial Intelligence Inc. and its subsidiaries in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico and New Zealand, and remote staff in any other country (including those engaged through an Employer of Record), whether on-site, hybrid or fully remote.

3. Policy
3.1 Informal first. Minor issues are discussed informally with the manager first.

3.2 Fair process. Before any disciplinary action the employee is told the allegation in writing, sees the evidence, and is heard at a meeting, with a colleague or representative if they wish.

3.3 Investigation. Facts are gathered by someone not involved; suspension on full pay is used only where necessary and is not a penalty.

3.4 Sanctions. Verbal warning, written warning, final written warning, or dismissal for repeated or gross misconduct, always proportionate and following local law.

3.5 Gross misconduct examples. Theft, fraud, violence, harassment, serious safety breaches, falsifying records, serious data breaches.

3.6 Appeal. Employees may appeal any decision within 5 working days to a more senior manager not previously involved.

3.7 Grievances. Employees can raise a grievance using HR-F16; HR meets them within 5 working days and replies in writing.

4. Responsibilities
- HR: Guide managers and keep records.
- Managers: Apply the process consistently.

5. Country addenda
Where the law of Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa, Egypt, Nigeria, Mexico or New Zealand gives employees greater rights than this policy, the law applies. Each country's HR lead keeps a short addendum listing local differences, published with this policy in the Policy Centre.

6. Related forms and policies
- HR-F16 Grievance Form

7. Acknowledgement
Employees confirm they have read this policy in the portal's Policy Centre. Breaches may lead to disciplinary action under POL-18. Questions go to HR or the policy owner.
